

Dear Mamma: I can't find any paper but this. Hope its big enough.
Got your letter today. No, I didn't get those for Dean. I will tho, if you don't, but if you find some that are suitable that will be all right with me. I can hardly write. My hands are sure hurting me. We are going to do something for them after Christmas. Its just getting on my nerves so, I feel like crying
all the time.

Went to the Bazaar & supper over to the church last night. Sure had a fine supper & only charged 35¢.
Maurice & Le Roy are coming down &
I get Dean's team & get a load of over to Charlie Buffingtons. Hes getting them free, you know.
Will have the Baby weaned when you get home if everything goes well.

Got Donald a little wool suit. Its real nice for $3.95.

We'll hope you can come home Sat. It won't be long.

Love

Eula

The kids are going to Emerson to-morrow. Grandma said she hadn't heard from you since you went out there. I think surely you must have written + she didn't get it.

Mon. A. M.

Will finish this up + mail it.

The kids went to Emerson. Had a fine time. Jane said Aunt S. was awfully weak. Can't sit up hardly. Grandma looks fine.
